From the Outlands Crown ...

Unto all Good Folk of the Outlands,

We, Artan and Tara, King and Queen, Send warm greetings.

Gentle folk,

First, We would like to thank all those persons who attended the Moonlight Tourney; the weekend was most enjoyable. We would also like to thank those persons who donated to the Inter-Kingdom Travel Fund.

Our presentations to the Crowns of the other kingdoms at the Pennsic War were illuminated and calligraphed invitations to the Inter-Kingdom Phune. Having had good response, We hope all of you are maing your plans to attend ahs a proper Outlandish time. The autocrat, Lord Marcus the Vintner, has promised lots of fighting, bardics, song swaps, and more. Lord Marcus may need help with general autocrat business; please contact him to volunteer your service.

Lady Elinor du Pont will be in charge of water bearing for the Phune, and she needs volunteers. In order to bear water on the field, you must be at least 16 years of age, supply your own equipment (water bottle, hoses, five gallons of water and badge), know the basic rules of combat and be prepared to garb yourself appropriately (no open toe shoes, leg covering is required). If you are unable to meet the specified requirements, but still wish to be of service, Lady Elinor will need help at the base station off the field. Please contact her to volunteer for water bearing.

We are also in need of a sheriff for the Phune, as well as people willing to do guard duty. Duties of the sheriff will include general site security and scheduling guard shifts. If you are interested in any of these duties, please contact Lord Marcus.

Lord Blaise de St. Thibaut is in charge of the chirurgeons for the Phune. There is a great need for more chirurgeons at this event. If you have the necessary mundane certifications (standard first aid and CPR), please contact him soon so you can be warranted before the Phune. If you are planning on fighting or participating in other activities and feel being a chirurgeon would interfere, please know that chirurgeons are needed for other times than just during the fighting. Lord Blaise will accomodate your schedule should you wish to volunteer your service.

We would like to thank the populace of Scorpion's Hollow for being so helpful and cooperative with the Phune. Organizing an event of this scale is no small task, and the people have taken to the effort with willingness and vigor. We thank you for your efforts.

The Arts and Sciences College will soon be upon us. A schedule of classes has now been published and We would thank all the instructors for their help. The classes all look exciting and diverse to accomodate most interests, including music, armor, garb construction, heraldry and illumination, as well as the all-day forge workshop. The next day will be the Kingdom Fighter School, Quarter Court, morning lawn and board games, and artisans' display. Please make plans to attend, and make your reservations early. Thanks in this venture go to Countess Kathryn for organizing on short notice and the populace of Aarquelle.

This month the Kingdom membership is below the required 400 level. We stress once again how important membership is, and that no awards or recognition will be given without membership. Fighters note -- it will be the policy of the marshallate that proof of membership must be presented in order for you to be authorized from now on. Note also that membership needs to be renewed upon receipt of the notice from the registry, else you may be in danger of lapsing.

We will be holding Pelican and Belted circles the weekend of Sept. 4-6 in Caerthe (His Majesty) and al-Barran (Her Majesty). Laurel Circle will be held the weekend of the Arts and Sciences College. Peers, please plan on attending. If you are unable to attend, We encourage your letters of recommendations, objections and opinions.

All fighters and consorts planning on entering the Fourth Crown Tourney of the Outlands -- you must have your letter of intent to Us by Sept. 13. No late letters will be accepted, nor will you be allowed to enter the Crown List. The requirements for entrance to the Crown Lists are elsewhere in this issue.

There is a schedule following this letter of the events We plan on attending. Please try to join us in the fun!

Yours in Service to the Outlands,

King

Caer Galen has chosen this grand and glorious occasion, when many fighters of high renown from all over our kingdom and elsewhere will be gathered in our fair shire, to seek a defender to protect the shirefolk. Depending on the number of entrants, the list will be either a progressive melee or a no-shields, double elimination tournament. If a progressive melee is held, the winning team of each combat will be the first one to kill the other team's captain. The captain of the winning team will be named Caer Galen Defender. He or she will receive a favor, an oak baton capped in silver and the heartfelt thanks and admiration of the shire. All members of the winning team will receive some token for their efforts.

Inter-Kingdom Event Promises Phun for All Comers

Greetings unto the Known World, from Lord Marcus the Vintner, that travelling Outlandish troll.

Well, the dog days of summer are almost over; it is now time to think of fun. That's correct; the First Annual Inter-Kingdom Phune is to be held Oct. 9-12, 1987 c.e., near the Shire of Scorpion's Hollow in the Kingdom of the Outlands!!!

Their Majesties Artan and Tara, along with the Outlandish Trolls and Lady Kendra Lianne of Scorpion's Hollow have tons of fun planned for the second weekend of October. Fighting, frivolities, and family fun are on tap, so bring the whole family or household. There are waterfowl living on the site, therefore we ask that Fido, Foo Foo, felines, ferrets and other pets stay at home.

As I have travelled through the Known World, I have seen many different ways to have fun. We plan to indulge in as many forms of fun as time permits. Please keep in mind that trolls have a unique way of telling time. Chronometer cancer may be removed from the wrist quite easily and painlessly at the gate.

Fighting will include an open field melee, a Mad Dog Tourney, a castle resurraction battle, a troll bridge battle and a Royal Guard Melee. Baronies, principalities, kingdoms: Get your seven persona non-white belted guard ready. The field will be open for any forms of fighting we can fit in as time permits. There will be a marshals' breakfast at dawn to formalize the fighting of the day. Any fighter awake at that time of day is welcome to attend.

For those who do not wish to fight, there will be several events which should please everyone. There will be an impromptu arts and sciences competition, a quest, a games area, a bardic and, of course, an opening and closing court. Several kings and queens from faraway

Waterbearers Needed for Inter-Kingdom Phune

Unto the Populace of the Outlands, I send warmest greetings:

I have heard mutterings from some of you about how water carrying isn't going to be fun anymore because of too much paperwork. This leads me to believe perhaps there is some miscommunication going on. I don't believe in paperwork except as a last resort, and I do believe that water bearing is very individualistic. However, that belief has to be tempered with a regard for safety and the rules of the SCA.

The rules of the SCA state that anyone who is going to be on, near, or associated with, the field of combat must be authorized. This means fighters, marshals, heralds, list people and waterbearers. This is not only for this event (Inter-Kingdom Phune) and not even only for the kingdom. The way you get authorized is to take the form in the August issue of The Outlandish Herald and take it to your marshal. He will then sign it and send it to Mistress Demelza, who will send you a little yellow card. This card means that you won't have to sign any more waivers for two years.

Safety is an issue that we have had to become ever more aware of as an organization. There are rules to that end on what the fighters have to wear to be on the field and on what the marshals have to carry.

As a waterbearer, there will be times when you will be completely ringed by sweaty fighters in full armor. While one would never deliberately hurt you, I have been stepped on and jostled more than once.

We also traditionally run at least one broken field scenario. For these reasons, we are going to require waterbearers to wear closed-toe shoes and cloth on the legs. The covering is also a good way to avoid sunburn as we tend to be out in the sun for long periods of time.

Other than your yellow cards and shoes, everything else for water carrying is strictly up to you. Two- or 3-liter water bottles can be easily covered with material. If you don't know how to do this, contact me and I'll be glad to tell you. Aquarium hoseing can be found at almost any pet store, and I've found 24 inches to be a good length.

Things that can be carried and are appreciated are cloths for wiping faces, spray bottles (fighters should never be sprayed without their permission!), rolls of duct tape and anything else you wish to carry.

Water carrying is a very fun and much needed part of any large fighting event, and I truly hope to see many of you out there with your yellow cards and bottles.

In service, I am,

lands will be there and will be treated as grandly as I have been treated in their kingdoms.

PLEASE TAKE NOTE: As I am a member of Household Rolling Thunder, I will allow drums to be in full force at any time EXCEPT courts and bardic. As a courtesy, the drummers will set aside their drumsticks at MIDNIGHT to soften their rhythms.

Merchants are, of course, welcome. We would like a donation of their wares for the prize fund.

For the children (those under the age of 10), we have the Outlandish Childrens College Cooperative. Parents please note the word cooperative; this is not a babysitting service. We expect you to give one hour per child to help supervise the children.

The site is Ned Houk Park, 10 miles north of Clovis NM USA. Note the spiffy map accompanying this article. The site is damp (discreetly wet). Weather is unpredictable, with temperatures ranging from 70 to 80 degrees F. during the days, and 40 to 50 degrees F. after dark.

The site fee is $5 American and a joke, pun, funny story, or a practical joke, and, of course, a smile on your face. An outline of your practical joke must be submitted to the Chuckle Committee before the event. You will receive more information when you pay your site fee.

As Phun-o-crat, I will be camping at the gate to answer any questions and to handle any complaints. I do not handle complaints very well. Please submit any complaints on paper with a copy for the Phun-o-crat, one for the autocrat, one for the Crown of the Outlands, one for your Crown, one for the seneschal of the Outlands, one for your seneschal, and, of course, one for yourself. That should do it.

OK, so you live far away and do not plan to come to our PHUNE. This does not mean you can not play. Submit to the Phun-o-crat, by post office, your tall tale of woe, and the persona with the most creative tall tale will be honored. Be crative, after all, that is our middle name.

For information, suggestions, comments and snide remarks, contact the PHUN-O-Crat, Lord Marcus the Vintner, P.O. Box 63, Albuquerque NM USA 87103.

If you wish to help with any aspect of the weekend, let me know and I will forward your persona to the proper Kingdom of the Outlands officer. I would like to thank Lady Kendra Lianne, the seneschal of Scorpion's Hollow for her assistance in the planning and logistical support she and the shire have given Their Majesties Artan and Tara, and myself (not majestic). Without her and her support, already is. If you find my humor a bit crass and would like to communicate with a real human instead of a troll, you may contact her: Lady Kendra Lianne, c/o Terry Vogt, 516 Gidding, Clovis NM USA 88101, 505-762-6621 (She keeps odd hours and may be asleep when she answers the farspeaker. Be forewarned.)

The fighting autocrat will be Lord Lance Lyttle du Pont, c/o Lance Hale, 9131 4th St., Sp. #1, Albuquerque NM 87107, 505-898-7380.

Event will Also Feature Arts, Sciences Display

An inter-kingdom arts and sciences display will be held in conjunction with the First Outlands Inter-Kingdom Phune event in Clovis NM on Oct. 9-12, AS XXII. All artisans and craftsmen are encouraged to bring items for the display, which will be held sometime Saturday afternoon.

It would be most helpful if items were accompanied by documentation and a 3" x 5" card giving the name of the artist, a description of the item, and a short description of the technique(s) used in the item's construction. Artists are also welcome to stay with their work to answer questions and ensure security for their items.

Persons interested in having items on display or wishing to inquire further should contact the Outlands Minister of Arts and Sciences: Lady Beatrix von Wertenberg, c/o Jan Watson, 3062 East Long Circle South, 303-721-7237.

New Site Chosen for Vunderland

Yes, Viking Vinter Vunderland exists! We lost our site of the past two years due to a set of unfortunate occurences, but we have an alternate set of sites. The new sites are : El Paso County Black Forest Park for the Viking games and the Black Forest Community Church for the indoor games and the evening feast-revel.

Duchess Selene will provide an on-site sideboard all day at the park which will include such yummy Scandinavian dishes as fish and rice, pumpernickel beer soup, fruit soup, bread and butter, and various pickled entities. The evening feast will feature a pork stew with noodles, pea and carrot salat, and (if she is still sane) Selene's Schaum Torte.

THE SITE IS VERY DRY, but the church will allow wine.

The games will include The Big Game (we hear the current champion has been ordered to lose last year's trophy any way he can); axe throwing; match lighting with a sword; the infamous hammer throw at Knut, and caber tossing -- if we can find one. This list is subject to change, but should be fairly true. Due to the total lack of clean up facilities on site, the Viking-Pig-Cum-Boffer-Mayhem will have to be omitted. A portajohn will be provided on site as the restroom will be closed for the season.

Fees: $10 site and feast for over 16 years

$5 site and feast for 6-16 years

$2 for under 6

More information will appear later. If you have questions, contact:

Outlands Arts & Sciences College

The Shire of Aarquelle has graciously volunteered to host a Kingdom Arts & Sciences College on the weekend of September 12 & 13, A.S. XXII. There are many interesting classes scheduled for your enjoyment, a great feast, and a Fighters' School as well. We are looking forward to seeing many Outlanders come and be enriched at this College.

The Site: The College will be held at the Pueblo Mountain Lodge in Beulah, Colorado (just west of Pueblo -- directions and map to follow). The lodge will open at 5:00 p.m. on Friday the 11th for overnight guests and closes at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday the 13th.

On-site lodging is available with your site fee. You must bring your own bedding, breakfasts and lunches. The site is moderately dry -- beer and wine allowed only! No pets! No small appliances (such as hairdryers, etc) since it may cause electrical overloads. No smoking is allowed in the lodge buildings.

The site fee os $7.50 per person is required to cover the rental fees for the lodge. Persons of the ages 12 to 15 are allowed in half price and children under 12 are allowed in free. The site fee includes your lodging on-site and entry into any of the classes (some classes may have a special fee to cover costs of workshops).

Other people will be using other buildings on the site. Please be courteous to and watchful of the mundanes.

The Feast: The cost of the feast will be $4.00 per person if they provide a dessert for the sideboard, $5.00 per person without a dessert. Persons of the ages 12 to 15 are half price and children under 12 are free. The feast will consist of breads, cheeses, fruit & butters; French Onion soup; salad with cold meat; vegetable dishes & roast beef; and the dessert sideboard.

At the direction of the Main Autocrat, a prize shall be awarded to the person bringing the Best Dessert (in her opinion). All feast fees are to be paid in advance by September 1st to the Feastocrat listed below. Dinner will begin around 6:30 p.m. or at the will of Their Majesties.

Quarter Court: Open to the public. Send any business to be discussed to Duke Christopher of Hoghton (Kingdom Marshall's address), Sir Mika Longbow (c/o Kingdom Treasurer's address), and Sir Hagen Silverskull (Kingdom Arts' address) prior to the event.

Fighting School: Classes will be held 3-at-a-time: First hour - Beginning Sword and Shield, Advanced Sword and Shield, and Fencing; Second Hour - Beginning Sword and Shield, Advanced Sword and Shield, and Shinai; Third Hour - Double Weapons, Two-Handed Weapons, and Field Marshalling.

Morning Lawn and Board Games: It has been suggested that games such as chess, backgammon, card games, croquet, etc. be organized for those not wishing to participate in the Fighting classes. The autocrat is looking for someone to organize these activities. Please volunteer your services in this area as soon as possible. As always, if there is no organized gaming, individuals are more than willing to bring their own activities.

Artists on the Green: We would like to see many artisans bring their crafts and set-up on the lawn Sunday afternoon. Many people are interested in "seeing" how various crafts are performed. There will be some workshops in the College, but we would like to see many other crafts displayed -- weaving, needle arts, calligraphy, metal working, music, etc. Basically, this activity is to allow artists to sit on the lawn, engage in their craft/talent, while interested people move from artist to artist and ask questions, observe, and possibly even try it themselves.

Other Activities: Other activities we would like to see organized is some dance instruction and Childrens' activities. If you wish to volunteer your expertise in these areas, please contact your Main Autocrat as soon as possible.

Household Plans All-Hallows Event

Starting Saturday, Oct. 31, XXII of the Present Middle Ages, and continuing until Nov. 1, there will be an All Hallow's Eve Revel hosted by the Household of the Drunken Archers in the Shire of the Great River.

The site is a private campground called the Cuevas and is located behind A Mountain. Overnight camping is planned and shade pavilions are recommended. There are firepits on the site, but you must bring you own wood. You will also need to bring water, as there is none on the site. There will, however, be restrooms.

Activities will include an archery competition, a bardic circle with a ghostly theme, dancing, children's activities and various contests, including boardgames and idle boasting. There is also a feast planned, which will be potluck, with everyone to bring a dish to feed six people. If you cannot bring a dish, there will be an additional feast fee of $4. There will be prizes for contest winners.

Site fee will be $5 preregistered, or $7 at the gate, per adult, with children under 12 paying $3 in either case. If you wish to preregister, please fill out the form and make checks payable to SCA-Shire of Great River. Please mail before Oct. 23. The site will open at 7 a.m. on Oct. 31 and the event will start at noon. The feast will begin at 6 that evening. A schedule of other events will be avilable on site. If you need more information, please contact Simon or Drucilla (Mundanely Carl of Dina Hursh) at 505-523-1347, or write them at 2903 Devendale, Las Cruces NM 88005.

Al-Barran's Ir-Revel Just Around the Corner

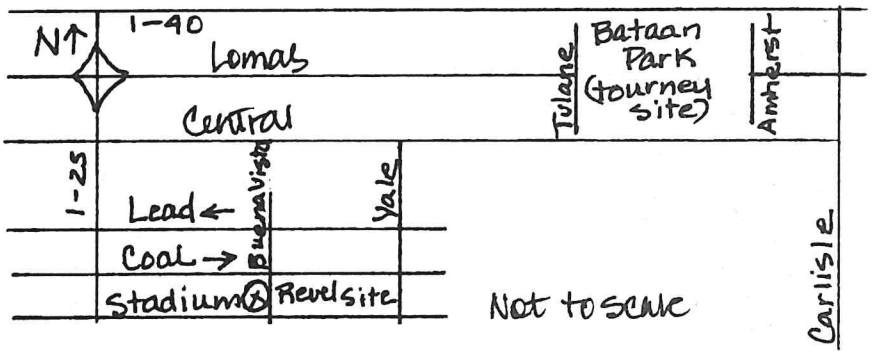
Salutations!

It's finally September and time for our event. We'd like to see all of you in the Barony of al-Barran Sept. 19 at Bataan Park for our tournament and revel. Set up begins about 10 a.m.; court will begin about noon, with the tournament to follow. There is a site fee of $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for children over 6. There is no site fee for children under 6.

The tournament is a plunder tournament, so all entrants to the lists are requested to bring an item of plunder. (Rumor has it that Johan Blau will put up a pair of gauntlets, so, if you need a pair ...) To the victor will not go all the spoils, however, as we are planning to have a second place prize and many whim prizes.

Please note: Although there is plenty of shade at the site, fighters should bring water.

After the tournament, the Ir-Revel will begin at Heights Community Center, 823 Buena Vista Dr. SE). We are planning on a potluck feast, preferably composed of period dishes. Please bring a dish which will serve six to 10 people and a utensil with which to serve it. There will be prizes for the best entree, side dish and dessert.



A variety of games will commence after the feast, including chess, mah-jongg, backgammon, and as many others as we can find. If you have games, please bring them. And, yes, there will be prizes for the winning gamesters as well.

Unofrtunately, both sites are dry. Glass containers are prohibited in the park, and no pets are allowed in the hall. Please don't bring any of either.

Crash space is available for those coming from out of town. If you need such space, please let the autocrats know before Sept. 15.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact the autocrats:

Citadel Prepares for Baronial Arts & Sciences Competition

The good people of the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass invite one and all to the Citadel's Baronial Arts and Sciences Competition to be held Sept. 19 and 20 at the New Castle Balduinseck, 10717 Sombra Verde Drive in El Paso TX.

The rules for the competition will be the same as Kingdom Arts and Sciences rules with one exception: the maximum number of entries for Champion or Guest Champion is 12 items; your top 10 items will count toward the championship. Copies of the rules can be found in the January and February issues of The Outlandish Herald or consult your minister of arts and sciences. There will be a fee of 25 cents an entry to cover paperwork costs.

Registration and set up will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday. Preregistration is strongly encouraged. Changes to your preregistration (additions and deletions) can be made up until the judging starts. Out-of-towners will be forgiven for not preregistering but it is hoped that all will have pity on the overworked autocrats.

Saturday night's feast will be a lovely main course to be announced, supplemented by the food entries from the competition. The feast fee is $1 for those bringing food and $3 for those choosing not to bring food. Bringing food and entering the culinary arts categories is definitely encouraged. New Date, Site for Equinox Festival

The Yewwood Manor Equinox Tournament and Harvest Festival has changed both its site and date.

The new date is Sept. 12 and 13, AS XXII. Starting time on Saturday will be approximately 10 a.m. and closing time on Sunday is Exhaustion o' clock.

The new site is Woods Landing WY. Please see map. This site is 450 acres of private land. Of this, five acres has been reserved to park fire chariots.

The site has available water. however, the owners have asked that you bring your own table(s) and chair(s), sunshade, and either grills and charcoal or camping stoves due to the extreme fire danger in this area in the fall. Also, sunscreen is recommended!. Elevation is approximately 7500 feet, with hot days and cold nights. This is a wet site! There is no crash space available as this is a camping event. The site is located at the base of the mountains, with a river running adjacent to it.

A potluck feast will be held Saturday night. Bring enough food to serve a minimum of six people. THERE IS NO SITE FEE. Gas and groceries are available in Laramie in copious amounts. There are limited gas and groceries available at a nearby store and gas station.

For further information, please contact Lord Tod or Lady Ceallach at 307-742-0502.

Lady Chatiagne the Meek and Lord Cathyn Bluesword Esq., have chosen Saturday, August the 29th as their wedding day and would like you to share in their joy by attending the festivities to be celebrated on the lovely grounds of Weaslewood Abbey, Aug. 28, 29 and 30. A prize of silver will be offered in a tourney and many other games and contests will be featured.

There will be a $4 site fee, which will include all you can eat of the side of beef to be provided for the wedding feast. Side dishes will be potluck; groups wishing to coordinate may contact the autocrat for ideas.

A hunt 10 a.m.

The hunt will be a woods battle-type activity to purge Weaslewood Abbey of the wolves that have invaded the sanctity of the abbey. There will be a bounty for the wolves as they are killed by the hunters, and they will be reborn as hunters. The hunters who have the sad fortune to be killed by the wolves will become wolves themselves. BEWARE! There is a single bear that roams the woods and he is much harder to kill than a wolf. These woods are also cursed with tree fairies who can enchant a knight by song and only those brave hunters who know the counter-song can be safe from their charms.

The autocrat recommends that attendees bring:

Insect repellent

Water and/or containers (there is water near but not on the site)

For Orc Ball, a weapon no longer than your forearm

For the hunt, horns, and the ladies and non-fighters wishing to be fairies, earth tone clothing.

Note: Please do not bring your pets if they are inclined to chase livestock.

Arts & Sciences Publication Planned

A special edition of The Outlandish Herald is being planned. We are now soliciting articles pertaining to any subject within the realm of arts or sciences -- how-to articles, research papers, recipes, kitchen tips, prose, poetry, song, art and illustration.

A special section of this issue will be set aside to publish "modern" shortcuts and adaptations for these creatively anachronistic days. Let us all in on those construction techniques found to recreate something for your "period" persona.

The bardic skills of Outlanders have increased many fold -- share your stories, poetry and songs with all. There are many illuminators and calligraphers -- share your talents by submitting piece art and border designs to augment the articles; offer to calligraph a title for an article being submitted, etc.

More details on this project have been sent to your local arts and sciences officer. Please contact that person if you have general questions. All art should be submitted on standard 8-1/2-inch by 11-inch white paper using black ink (piece art either to be reduced or limited to 1/4 or 1/2 sheet in size). Articles should be typed and doubel-spaced with clear illustrations in black ink. I will be retyping all submissions to reformat for publication, but please make your illustrations photo-ready. Bibliography! Credits!

Please send all submissions to: Countess Kathryn of Iveragh, c/o M. Kathryn Ballard, 11100 Gibson SE I-93, Albuquerque NM 87123.

The deadline for submissions is Sept. 30. Please include a brief biography of your persona, awards and any office you may currently hold for publication. Enclose your address and phone number so that I may contact you if there is any confusion -- these will not be published.

This publication will cost your Kingdom more than $500 to print and mail out. Please contribute to this endeavor even if only you can afford a small amount -- every little bit helps. Encourage your group to aid with a donation for this publication to benefit all Outlanders. Mail your contribution with a submission to me, or send it directly to Mistress Ursula, Outlands Treasurer, noting it is to be used for the A & S newsletter. I am shooting for about 50 pages of good articles in this publication!
